Refund Deadlines And Student-Initiated Withdrawals

All students who have officially dropped from classes within the scheduled refund deadline will be eligible for a refund or tuition credit based on the refund schedule. When dropping classes, students must officially do so during the refund period to be eligible for a refund. Refund deadlines for each class can be found in the Online Student Center or in person at the college's Admissions, Records, and Registration office. Refer to Administrative Regulation 2.2.10 Refund Policy for details.

Students may initiate withdrawals up to a specified deadline based on the length of the class. After that time, students must initiate a withdrawal request with the faculty member. Student- and faculty-initiated deadlines for each class can be found in the Online Student Center. Refer to Administrative Regulation 2.3.6 Withdrawal for details.

* For specific information concerning the last day to apply for graduation, individual class start dates, and final exams, consult the college of enrollment.
 ** Any classes meeting on Friday, Saturday or Sunday will have final examinations during their regular class time.
