

Dr. Lamata Mitchell — Dr. Mitchell currently serves as the Vice President of Instruction and Academic Operations at Pima Community College in Tucson, AZ, and has held this position since 2016. She has over two decades of experience working at the community college level. Dr. Mitchell also serves on local, state and national committees focused on college readiness, among them include The College to Success Arizona Advisory Council, The Achieve 60 Arizona Committee, and the Global Education Commission of the American Association of Community Colleges. She is also a member on the Tucson NAACP scholarship committee, the NAACP board, and the Scholarship Committee of the Rockford Association of Minority Management of which she serves as the co-chair.

She was recently a fellow of the Thomas Lakin Institute; a national organization focused on preparing Senior Executives for Presidency. Other leadership institutes she has completed include the John Rouché's Leadership Institute, the American Association of Women in Community College Leaders Institute, Loyola University's Strategic Leadership, Hampton University's Executive Leadership, and the Kaleidoscope Leadership Institute.

Dr. Mitchell earned her Ph.D. in English from Northern Illinois University, IL, a Master of Arts in English from Andrews University, MA, a Master of Arts in Publishing and Journalism from Loughborough University, UK, and Bachelor of Arts in English and Philosophy from Trent University, UK.