

Dr. Rey Rivera — Dr. Rivera has over twenty-three years of higher education experience and currently serves as Vice President of Learning at Estrella Mountain Community College. He also serves as the EMCC representative to Western Maricopa Coalition's Education and Workforce Development Team and was recently elected to the Southwest Valley Chamber of Commerce's Board of Directors. Additionally, he serves as one of the EMCC HLC Tri-Chair for Reaccreditation and is part of HLC's Peer Reviewer Corps.

Rivera previously served as full-time mathematics faculty at EMCC for over fifteen years. He held several leadership positions at EMCC by serving as the Division Chairperson of Science and Mathematics, Faculty Senate President, Principal Investigator for two National Science Foundation grants, and Interim Dean of Occupational Education. Dr. Rivera was recently selected as a 2019 Aspen Presidential Fellow and continues to serve as adjunct faculty in mathematics to maintain a strong connection to the classroom, students and faculty.

Dr. Rey Rivera earned his Ed.D. in higher and post-secondary education at Arizona State University, his Master of Science degree in mathematics at Purdue University, and completed his Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics at The University of Texas at Austin.