Paramedicine Student Selection Process [Sworn Public Safety Personnel - Sponsored Fire / Law Enforcement]

STEP #1 ENROLL IN A MCCCCD COLLEGE

Click on this link Enroll as a Student at an MCCCCD College to enroll as a student at your college of choice. The student must enroll at one of the Maricopa County Community College District (MCCCCD) colleges that offer an accredited Paramedicine program:

- Glendale Community College \(GCC\)
- Mesa Community College \(MCC\)
- Paradise Valley Community College \(PVCC\)
- Phoenix College \(PC\)

STEP #2 COMPLETE AND SUBMIT THE MCCCCD PARAMEDICINE PROGRAM E-APPLICATION

Once you pass the computer-based Paramedicine entrance examination, you must complete and submit the MCCCCD Paramedicine Program E-application. The E-application process takes approximately 40 minutes.

Click on this link Paramedic E-Application Step by Step Instructions for detailed instructions on how to complete the MCCCCD Paramedicine Program E-application.

Click on this link Paramedicine E-Application to be directed to the MCCCCD Paramedicine Program E-application portal.

STEP #3 LETTER OF AFFIDAVIT AND CONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE

Once you complete the application process, your sponsoring agency representative must provide a letter of affidavit to the Paramedicine Program Director that attests to your successful criminal background check and urine drug screening results. Please note that only current participating EMS Regional Operations Consistency Committee

(ROCC) public safety agencies are authorized to provide a letter of affidavit on your behalf.

Please contact the Paramedicine Program Directors at your program of preferred choice to receive the affidavit letter template for your employer to complete and submit.

Once the Paramedicine Program Director receives the completed letter of affidavit from the sponsoring agency, you will be notified that you have been accepted into the Paramedicine program.

STEP #4 REQUIRED HEALTH AND SAFETY DOCUMENTS

A document tracker program is used to submit health and safety documents required by the program and the MCCCDC. Health and safety documents include vaccination records, 2-step tuberculosis screening, annual influenza vaccination, and annual physical examination verification. You or your sponsoring agency are required to purchase the document tracker program and begin uploading the required documents. The estimated cost to you or your sponsoring agency is $25.00.

If you do not have one or more of the required documents, you are required to obtain them at your or your sponsoring agency's cost.

Click on this link for information regarding the required health and safety documents: Healthcare Education Health & Safety Requirements

STEP #5 PARAMEDICINE STUDENT ORIENTATION

You are required to attend a student orientation typically conducted 30 days prior to the start of the Paramedicine program. You will be contacted by the program regarding the date and time of this event.

STEP #6 PARAMEDICINE COURSE REGISTRATIONS

You are required to register for specific courses in the first term (block) of the Paramedicine program. Registration for these courses is usually 30 days prior to the start of the Paramedicine program. The program will provide information regarding these courses and registration.
